Last week we heard from our City officials regarding the proposed Local Sales Tax.

They detailed what the tax would be used for and why it is needed. Woodlake Nature Ctr needs new buildings & more space. Total estimate of 45 million dollars. Veteran's Park pool needs a new pool liner, the current one is 63 years old. The Ice Arena needs modernization & the Mini Golf building needs a new roof. Park trails need improvements. Total estimate of 9 million dollars. A new Community Center would supply needed space and replace the many problems with the current site Water damage is frequent and space is needed for community activities. Total estimate of 45 million $. More information available at ourlegacyourfuture.org

We meet again on July 10, 2024 in our usual spot. Our speaker will be David Lapakko, who will tell us about "America's Greatest Thinker". Make sure you are in attendance for this one!
